

Protect Families Worldwide—Become a Forum Sponsor!

*We want to bring as many family-friendly UN diplomats as possible to our Forums.
With your help that is possible.*

Why Support the Forum & Family Watch International?

FIVE REASONS

1. The training UN diplomats receive at Family Watch’s annual Global Family Policy Forums have a direct positive impact on international family policies negotiated at the UN. From stopping policies that would sexualize children to protecting the unborn in the womb, to passing a series of family protection resolutions, FWI’s Forums have a strong track record with proven results.
2. Attacks on family, life, religious freedom, parental rights and children at the UN are real, and the creation of UN policies are funded largely by your tax dollars. UN policies also trickle down and impact U.S. laws and policies.
3. UN diplomats participating in our Forums have made a seismic difference in negotiated UN agreements affecting children and families worldwide—often using materials and talking points received at the Forum.
4. The Forum provides UN diplomats in the trenches of the battle a secure, offsite location where they can receive essential education, training and resources to defend the traditional family against governments and UN entities seeking to dismantle the family in the U.S. and abroad.
5. The UN ambassadors and diplomats that participate in our Forums represent a wide variety of developing countries. These governments simply do not have budgets for training and development. To make attendance possible Family Watch must cover travel, food and lodging costs for each diplomat participant.
